World-class track and field can be expected once again at the INDOOR MEETING Karlsruhe on 31 January 2020. Olympic champions as well as world and European champions will compete as part of the international indoor athletic series of the IAAF World Indoor Tour. But it’s not only the approximately 5,000 visitors in the Karlsruhe Exhibition Centre who will experience top-level athletics. Local TV viewers will also have the chance to be there when EUROSPORT 1 broadcasts the INDOOR MEETING live, from 8:15 pm to 10:00 pm, from Hall 3 of the Karlsruhe Exhibition Centre. The INDOOR MEETING will be broadcast in 64 European countries as well as 45 countries in the Asia-Pacific region, including Australia, India, and South Korea. Additionally, the MEETING will be available as a live stream on the day of the event via Eurosport Player. “Karlsruhe has made a name for itself worldwide as an athletics venue. We are even more pleased that the broadcast from Karlsruhe will be available on TV during prime time”, said sports director Alain Blondel.

Those who have not yet purchased their tickets for the 36th edition of the INDOOR MEETING Karlsruhe should hurry up. Since ticket sales began last Saturday, 2,500 - half the tickets - have already been sold and tickets for blocks G, H, and I are sold out. “Anticipation of the first international highlight in 2020 on German soil is huge among athletics fans”, said Martin Wacker, CEO of the organising company, Karlsruhe Marketing and Event GmbH. “As part of the International World Indoor Tour, the INDOOR MEETING Karlsruhe is really attractive”, continued Wacker.
